2. The EMPLOYER will submit to the Public Employees' Retirement System the employee's request for withdrawal with the last monthly PERS report that the employee's name appears on, provided the employee has submitted a withdrawal form to the Human Resource Office.

ARTICLE 20 - TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

1. Employees who are required to travel on County business by their department head will be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with County reimbursement policy.
2. The EMPLOYER shall either furnish employees with an advance in a timely fashion, in warrant form, in accordance with the County's policies on advances, or furnish employees with a credit card for per diem, lodging and gasoline.

ARTICLE 21 - DISCIPLINARY ACTION

1. The EMPLOYER agrees to follow a policy of progressive discipline which typically will include the following progression:
 - (A) Verbal warning
 - (B) Written warning
 - (C) Suspension,
 - (D) Discharge.

It is understood that the EMPLOYER may implement discipline at any of the four levels above, provided the discipline is appropriate to the seriousness of the offense.

2. The EMPLOYER may discharge any Regular or Seasonal status employee for just cause. Prior to a suspension without pay, involuntary demotion, or involuntary termination (dismissal) when just cause is required, Regular and Seasonal status employees are entitled to oral or written notice of the charges against him (or her), an explanation of the EMPLOYER'S investigation and evidence, and an opportunity to present contrary evidence or facts. [Also see Article 22, Section 2. E., below].
3. Should a Regular or Seasonal status employee's performance be unsatisfactory or deficient, an employee shall be issued a written warning specifying the employee's deficiencies. The warning letter shall specify the length of time, if any, that the warning letter will stay in an employee's personnel file. Six months from the date of the letter, and every six (6) months thereafter, the employee can make a written request to the supervisor to have the letter removed from the file. Such letter, length of time the letter will remain in the personnel file, and the supervisor's decision are all subject to the grievance procedure.
4. Any non-probationary Regular or Seasonal status employee who is suspended or dismissed shall have the right to appeal the action solely and exclusively through the grievance procedure. Also see Article 22, paragraph 2. E.

6. Each employee shall be permitted to inspect his/her personnel file or designate in writing what other individuals may be permitted to inspect the personnel file.

ARTICLE 22 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. A grievance shall mean an allegation by an employee of the UNION resulting in a dispute or disagreement between the employee and the EMPLOYER as to an alleged misinterpretation of misapplication of the expressed terms and conditions of this Agreement. It is understood that this definition includes the right to grieve over allegations that an employee's pay level is not in accordance with the negotiated rate for the position which he/she occupies.

2. Definitions and Interpretations

- A. Extension: Time limits specified in this Agreement may be extended by mutual agreement.
- B. Days: Reference to days regarding time periods in this procedure shall refer to working days. A working day is defined as all weekdays not designated as holidays by state law.
- C. Computation of Time: In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by procedures herein, the date of the act, event or default for which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be counted, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday.
- D. Filing and Postmark: The filing or service of any notice or document herein shall be timely if it is personally served or if it bears a certified postmark of the United States Postal Service within the time period.
- E. Time Limitation and Waiver: Grievances shall not be valid for consideration unless the grievance is presented to the department head in writing, setting forth the facts and the specific provision of the Agreement allegedly violated, and the particular relief sought within twenty (20) working days from the date the individual should have been reasonably aware that a grievance had occurred. In cases of discharge or suspension the employee or the UNION will have five (5) days to file a grievance. Failure to file any grievance within such time periods shall be deemed a waiver thereof. Failure to appeal a grievance from one level to another within the time periods hereafter provided shall constitute a waiver of the grievance.

3. Representative: The EMPLOYER or the UNION may be represented at any step of the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure by any person or agent designated by such party to act on their behalf.

4. Adjustment of Grievance: The EMPLOYER and the employee shall attempt to adjust all grievances which may arise during the course of employment of any employee of the EMPLOYER in the following manner:

Level 1: Informal Process: An effort shall first be made to adjust an alleged grievance informally between the employee and the immediate supervisor within 15 working days of the incident that gave rise to the dispute or disagreement. The immediate supervisor shall have 10 working days to respond. The response shall be in writing. All grievances must be discussed with the immediate supervisor prior to the filing of a formal grievance and no formal grievance may be filed until the immediate supervisor has been given opportunity to attempt resolution prior to moving the grievance to Level 2.

Level 2: Formal Filing. If the grievance cannot be resolved through informal discussions, the UNION shall provide the department head with a written notice of the grievance. The written notice of the grievance shall include a summary of the dispute or disagreement, the sections of the agreement that have been violated and a proposed remedy. The department head shall provide a written response to the grievance no more than ten (10) days after receipt of the grievance.

Level 3: Investigative process. In the event the grievance is not resolved at Level 2, the UNION may appeal the decision to the County HR Director, provided such appeal is made in writing within five (5) days after receipt of the decision in Level 2. If a grievance is properly appealed to the HR Director, the HR Director or designee shall set a time to meet with the parties separately regarding the grievance within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the appeal. Within ten (10) days after the meeting, the HR Director or designee shall issue a decision in writing to the parties involved.

Level 4: Grievance panel. In the event the grievance is not resolved at Level 3, the UNION may appeal the decision to a grievance panel composed of two (2) members picked by the UNION and two (2) members picked by the EMPLOYER. The panel shall meet within ten (10) working days after the decision in Level 3 is rendered to hear the grievance with the appellant, the appellant's representative, the EMPLOYER and the EMPLOYER'S representative. After this meeting, the grievance panel shall have a maximum of five (5) working days in which to issue a decision.

Level 5: Commission Hearing. If a grievance has not been resolved at Level 4, the UNION may present the grievance to the County Commissioners for consideration. The Commissioners or their designee shall, within fifteen (15) days, meet to hear the grievance with the appellant and his/her representative. After this meeting, the Commissioners shall have a maximum of fifteen (15) days in which to answer the grievance in writing.

Denial of Grievance: Failure of the County Commissioners to issue a decision within the time periods provided herein shall constitute a denial of the grievance and the employee may appeal it to the next level.

Step Waiver: Provided both parties agree in writing any level of this grievance procedure may be bypassed and processed at a higher level.

5. Arbitration

- A. In the event the Commission's decision is not agreeable to the UNION, the UNION may move the grievance to arbitration. The appeal must be made within ten (10) working days to the County Commission in writing. An Arbitrator shall be selected by the EMPLOYER and the UNION. In the event that the Arbitrator cannot be agreed upon, the Montana Department of Labor - Board of Personnel Appeals shall be asked to submit a list of five (5) names who are members of the American Arbitration Association, from which list the impartial Arbitrator shall be chosen by each party striking two (2) names from the list and the remaining name being the Arbitrator selected. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be binding on all parties.

- B. Each party shall pay its own expenses with respect to Arbitration with one (1) exception, that the expenses of the arbitrator shall be paid one half (1/2) by the EMPLOYER and one half (1/2) by the UNION.

6. Election of Remedies

Upon instituting a proceeding in another forum other than those outlined herein, the employee shall waive his/her right to initiate a grievance pursuant to this Article or if the grievance is pending in the grievance procedure, the right to pursue it further shall be immediately waived. A party instituting any action, proceeding or complaint in a federal or state court of law, or seeking relief through any statutory process for which relief may be granted, the subject matter of which may constitute a grievance under this Agreement, shall immediately thereupon waive any and all rights to pursue a grievance under this Article. This provision shall not apply to actions to compel arbitration as provided in this Agreement or to enforce the award of an arbitrator. It is understood by the employee that if he/she elects to go outside the grievance procedure the UNION is not permitted nor required to proceed with a grievance for that employee.

ARTICLE 23 - CONTRACTING/CHANGE IN LEGISLATION

- 1. If the state legislature changes laws such that the County is no longer responsible for services currently accomplished by the members of this bargaining unit, the EMPLOYER agrees to negotiate, as required under current state law, the changes such a legislative act would involve.
- 2. In the event the County decides to contract any or all of the services currently performed by members of this bargaining unit, the EMPLOYER agrees to negotiate, as required under current state law, the changes such a decision would involve.

ARTICLE 24 - STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

During the term of this Agreement, the UNION shall not engage in a strike or slowdown. The EMPLOYER agrees not to lockout the UNION.

ARTICLE 25 - SAVINGS CLAUSE

- 1. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of such provision should be declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or by reason of any existing or subsequently enacted legislation, the remaining parts or portions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
- 2. The parties hereby agree to meet within thirty (30) days thereafter to modify the affected provision.

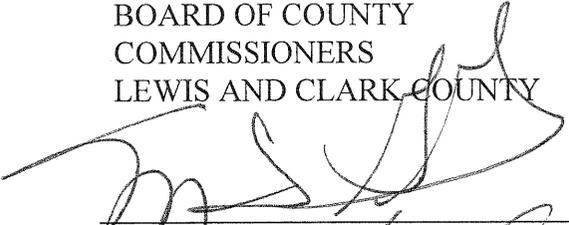

ARTICLE 26 - TERM AND SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement is effective July 1, 2014 and shall continue in full force and effect until the 30th day of June 2016, at which time it is automatically renewed and continued in effect from year to year thereafter unless written notice is given by either party to the other during the month of March 2016. In the second year, either party may open this agreement to discuss wages any changes to the health benefit plan by giving written notice to the other party during the month of March.
2. It is understood and agreed that, by mutual agreement, the parties may open the Agreement for further negotiations. Any amendment supplemental hereto shall not be binding upon either party unless executed in writing and attached to this Agreement.
3. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties and no verbal statement or past practices shall supersede any of its provisions. The parties further acknowledge that during the course of collective bargaining each party had the unlimited right to offer, discuss, accept or reject proposals. Therefore, it is understood that the EMPLOYER has the right to manage its operations only to the expressed limitation of the provisions of this Agreement.
