

Lincoln Solid Waste District Volume Dispute Policy

Intention of this policy: To allow Lincoln Solid Waste District residents a fair and timely format to dispute the volume of waste on their Lincoln Solid Waste District account/accounts.

Residents will be allowed ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year to dispute their volume of waste. Each fiscal year ends on June 30th and September 29th will be noted as the Ninetieth (90th) day following the end of the fiscal year. The Lincoln Solid Waste District Board will review all dispute requests within a reasonable time period following that date. Board decisions will be final and notices will be given to property owners regarding the determinations. All overages, if not paid, shall be placed on taxes according to Lewis & Clark County Resolution 2005-61.

The entity disputing their yardage shall hold responsibility of providing the Lincoln Solid Waste District Board with all information and documents pertaining to their request. Information must be sent to the address below on or before September 29th.

(This policy does not affect disputes regarding Lincoln Solid Waste District Assessments, which may be disputed for up to five years.)

For more information regarding your account, help obtaining documents, or to submit a dispute request, please call or write to the Lincoln Solid Waste District Secretary at:
