The Secretary of State has lists of other 501 ©3’s.

Look into the Treacy Foundation for scholarships for the building.

COUNCIL REPORT:

A $10.00 fee will also be assessed to all large animal members, to help go towards the panels also.

Josh brought up that a scholarship workshop might be a good idea.

Dave brought up that the less dollar amount scholarships should have less requirements to apply.

Mary is working on a sheet with dates and scholarship information to send out to club leaders.

Janet brought up she has found a bookkeeper that would be $25.00 an hour. They would be responsible for paperwork being printed off and ready for council, livestock, and foundation meetings. Janet will get some references and she thinks it would be a 2-3 hours a month job. Dave suggests Janet checks references and if she thinks they would be good to hire this person. Jay asked who is responsible to help out the bookkeeper. Janet will help them and we still use Anderson-Zuehrmullen for taxes.

Cody motioned that Janet moves forward with the bookkeeper and on Janet’s approval that person will be our bookkeeper, the Foundation will pay for the bookkeeper. 2nd by Catherine, passed unanimously.
