

Helena, Montana

HISTORIC WALKING TOURS

During the Gilded Age, this historic Western city, now the capital of Montana, reputedly boasted more millionaires per capita than any city in the U.S.

Summer guided walking tours are offered on Sunday afternoons at 4:00 p.m.; $5/person and children are free:

June - Helena's Historic Last Chance Gulch - Old Main Street. Examines the Queen City of the Rockies' existing historic architecture, as well as those now gone, plus the discovery of gold. Meet at 58 N. Last Chance Gulch in front of the Big Dipper Ice Cream.

July - Mansions and Millionaires, Helena's West Side Neighborhood. Montana's largest concentration of architecturally significant historic residences. Meet at the corner of Madison and Stuart Streets.

August - Old South Central Neighborhood. Helena's oldest neighborhood features the earliest homes and structures in the City. Meet at S. Rodney and State Streets.

Tours can be scheduled at other times for groups of 5+; please call 447.8357 or email pattardo@lccountymt.gov. Also see www.helenahistory.com
