SHOWMANSHIP RULES

In the event an exhibitor loses an animal, they will be allowed to use another animal for showmanship divisions.
2. Judges are looking for exhibitors who demonstrate superior skill in fitting, training, knowledge, and showing of their animals.
3. At all times that an exhibitor is showing an animal they will be judged on showmanship. The judge will make the selection based on the following:
 - a. Proper attire of showmen. Each species may have a different dress code.
 - b. Proper equipment which may include halter, show stick, white cloth, brush, or comb.
 - c. Fitting the animal which includes cleaning and grooming of the animal.
 - d. Showmanship is the way the animal is shown by the exhibitor.

ROUND ROBIN SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

2. Top showman will show their ability to properly show and handle a horse, beef, swine, dairy cattle, poultry, sheep, goat, rabbit and dog.

3. The 4-H member should be asked by a superintendent within one (1) hour of the show if the member will be available for the Round Robin show and if they plan to participate. If a member indicates and notifies a superintendent they do not want to show in Round Robin, the next alternate will be chosen. Once a member indicates they will not show for that species they cannot change.
4. If the individual pulls out of Round Robin within one (1) hour before the show or does not show up to participate in Round Robin, the member will not be eligible to participate in Round Robin the following year. If a station does not have a showman the Round Robin Committee can decide what action to take i.e. whether to trade the animals, eliminate station, choose from an alternate list or any other action that is deemed appropriate.

HERDSMANSHIP

Herdsmanship is to promote better care of livestock, pens and equipment to keep animals fed, clean and attractive. A well-kept livestock area makes a better exhibit and promotes safety to livestock, members and general public. The humane care of animals is an attribute of a good herdsman. A good herdsman is promoting their industry by talking to general public about projects. Herdsmanship will be scored on a rubric that encompasses the qualities and actions highlighted above.
