Appendix C

Noncompliance Case Review: Noxious Weed Management Proposals and Compliance Status

The Board will review cases in which a Notice of Noncompliance was delivered by certified mail, including submitted Noxious Weed Management Proposals requiring Board approval for the property to be considered In Compliance; cases where a Final Inspection has occurred, but no proposal has been received despite management activities having occurred; and cases where a Final Inspection has been completed, at least ten (10) full days have elapsed since delivery of the Notice, and no management activities or contact have been received from the landowner. The Board will determine the appropriate compliance action for each case, including whether referral to the County Attorney's Office is warranted.
